Financial & Program Analyst, GS-301-9/11/12 (Promotion Potential to GS-13)
This announcement is a solicitation for applications from all sources.

VACANCY ANNOUNCEMENT NUMBER 2004-086VCJ

The Office of Personnel Resources will be accepting applications for the position identified above from April 1, 2004, through April 23, 2004. All applications must be postmarked or received by April 23, 2004.

A full time (40 hours per week) position is available for a Financial and Programs Analyst in the Financial Strategies and Research unit of the Community Development Financial Institutions (CDFI) Fund's Policy and Programs division. The CDFI Fund is charged with promoting economic revitalization and community development through investment in and assistance to community development financial institutions such as community development banks, community development credit unions, loan funds, and community development venture capital funds; through encouraging insured depository institutions to increase lending, financial services and technical assistance within distressed communities and to CDFIs; and through allocation of tax credits for community development through the New Markets Tax Credit (NMTC) Program. The Fund provides financial assistance, technical assistance and tax credit allocations to its awardees.

The Financial and Program Analyst reports to the Financial Strategies and Research Manager and is responsible for assisting in the implementation of the Fund's financial strategies and research initiatives. Specific duties include: 1) measuring the activities and outcomes of the Fund's program participants; 2) analyzing data and preparing reports related to the performance of the Fund's awardees; 3) promoting CDFI industry-wide research and development efforts; 4) designing and conducting research to further the Fund's mission; and 5) evaluating applications for assistance from the Fund.

The Fund is located in the heart of downtown Washington, D.C. at 601 13th Street, NW, seconds away from the Metro Center, shops, restaurants, and less than 3 blocks from the Main Treasury Building located on the White House Complex.

Additional information is provided on the reverse side of this announcement for Veterans, Status Candidates and Persons Eligible Under Special Appointing Authorities.

QUALIFICATION REQUIREMENTS	~ In accordance with the Office of Personnel Management's qualification standard Administrative and Management Positions, all candidates must possess one year of specialized experience equivalent to at least the next lower grade level. Specific information defining experience creditable as "specialized" is included on the following page.

Status candidates who wish to be considered under both merit promotion and OPM competitive procedures must submit two complete applications. When only one is received, it will be considered under merit promotion procedures only.

Employment of People with Disabilities: The Departmental Offices provides reasonable accommodations to applicants with disabilities on a case-by-case basis. If you need a reasonable accommodation for any part of the application and hiring process, please notify the point of contact listed on this vacancy announcement.

Veterans Employment Act of 1998: Veterans who are preference eligibles or who have been separated from the armed forces under honorable conditions after 3 or more years of continuous active service may apply.

Specialized Experience: Specialized experience is experience which provided the applicant with the particular knowledge, skills, and abilities (KSA's) to successfully perform the duties of the position and which is typically related to the work of the position to be filled. For this position, specialized experience includes experience using qualitative and quantitative research methods and statistical analysis; as well as experience with statistical programs and setting up and managing ACCESS databases.

Substitution of Education for Experience: For the GS-9: 2 full years of progressively higher level graduate education or Master's or equivalent graduate degree (i.e. LL.B or J.D.), For the GS-11: 3 full years of progressively higher level graduate education or PhD or equivalent doctoral degree.

Basis for Rating: Applicants will be evaluated for this position based on their relevant experience (including voluntary experience), education, training, and awards as reflected in their application as of the closing date of this announcement. Status applicants will be rated and ranked based on values that are assigned to your experience to determine the best qualified. Therefore, to receive full consideration, applicants are encouraged to address the rating factors listed below. These rating factors may be addressed by using plain paper. Training records, awards, and supervisory appraisals will also be considered in the ranking process.

Rating Factors:

1. Knowledge of and experience using qualitative and quantitative research methods, including statistical analysis.
2. Experience with statistical programs such as SPSS or SASS. Experience setting up and managing ACCESS databases. Experience with SQL databases and mapping software (such as Arcview) is preferred. Experience analyzing and importing publicly available financing-related and socioeconomic data such as Bureau of the Census, Home Mortgage Disclosure Act (HMDA), Community Reinvestment Act (CRA), Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation (FDIC), Federal Financial Institutions Examination Council (FFIEC) and Bureau of Labor Statistics data, is preferred.
3. Experience communicating statistical and other research analysis and findings in writing and orally to audiences that are not well versed in statistics or research methods.
4. Knowledge of community development finance and/or economic development issues such as access to credit and financial services, business development, affordable housing development, homeownership, community facilities development, and community revitalization.

Non-status candidates are those applicants who have not been appointed to a permanent position in the competitive service. Upon request from the selecting official, all non-status candidates who meet minimum qualification requirements will be forwarded to OPM for ranking and referral.

Time-in-Grade: Status applicants applying under merit promotion procedures must meet the time-in-grade requirements outlined in 5 C.F.R., Subpart F, i.e., at least 52 weeks at the lower grade level.

Note for CTAP/ICTAP Eligibles: Treasury Career Transition Assistance Program (CTAP) eligibles in the local commuting area who are determined to be “well-qualified” for this position will be given selection priority consideration. Interagency CTAP eligibles in the local commuting area who are determined to be “well-qualified” for this position may apply for special selection priority over other candidates for this position. Preference eligibles or veterans who have been separated from the armed forces under honorable conditions after three (3) years or more of continuous active service may apply under the Veterans Employment Act of 1998. In accordance with Treasury’s Career Transition Assistance Plan, a CTAP/ICTAP eligible will receive special selection priority consideration if 1) applying at or below the grade level from which separated with no greater promotion potential than the position from which separated, 2) is within the commuting area, and 3) is determined to be “well qualified” for this position. To be determined “well-qualified,” a candidate must be able to demonstrate that he/she has had specialized experience in the community development industry, including development finance. Candidates must submit documentation of eligibility under the Department of the Treasury CTAP/ICTAP for special selection priority: i.e., a copy of the certification/displacement letter, along with all other items listed in the “How to Apply” section of this announcement.

Application Procedures: In order to assure that you are given full consideration for this position, the information identified on the attached checklist should be included in your application package.

Application packages may be mailed to: Department of the Treasury, Office of Personnel Resources, 1500 Pennsylvania Avenue, Washington, D.C. 20220. Applications sent in government postage paid envelopes will not be considered. Applications will be accepted from government fax machines. Applications received under this announcement will not be returned. Therefore, do not submit original documents that you will need for your personal records. Copies will be accepted. Applications that do not contain all of the required information will not be considered. To be considered for this position please submit all of the required information on the checklist.

We regret that applications cannot personally be delivered. Applications must be faxed, emailed or mailed. Applications must be received by the closing date of the announcement.

Noncritical Sensitive - This position has been designated noncritical sensitive. The individual selected for this position will be subject to the necessary security investigation. Executive Branch agencies are barred from accepting or considering prohibited political recommendations and are required to return any prohibited political recommendations to the sender.

Financial Disclosure: The applicant selected for this position may be required to complete a financial disclosure form.

Promotion Potential: The selectee may be promoted to the full performance level without further competition when all regulatory, qualification and performance requirements are met. Selection at a lower grade level does not guarantee promotion to the full performance level, but depends on the selectee's demonstration of the ability to perform the duties of the higher grade to the satisfaction of the supervisor and the availability of enough work to support the targeted position.
